

The United States Forest Service & Back to Natives RESTORATION

RESTORATION TRAINING PROGRAM

Registration Form

Back to Natives Restoration, in a cooperative agreement with the Cleveland National Forest, provides hands on training for restoration volunteers over the course of a 7 week training program. Each training session focuses on specific aspects of the restoration process from tool and trail safety training, to native and non native plant identification, proper site entry/exit protocol and mechanical/physical abatement techniques to reduce soil disturbance and possible weed seed germination. This is a CLASS. Expect quizzes, homework and a final exam!

Dates: January 17, 19, 24, 26, 31 & February 2, 7, 9, 14, 16, 21, 23, 28 & March 2

Times: Thursday evenings are 6-8PM and Saturdays are 9AM-2PM.

Where: Cleveland National Forest and REI, Tustin.
